Content Guidelines: This section must be completed before your program will be scheduled. Falsification or willful misrepresentation of this information required in this contract will result in suspension of user privileges. In accordance with ACCESS CARSON CITY'S Operating Rules and Procedures, by checking YES to question 2 or 3, ACCESS CARSON CITY reserves the right to determine an appropriate time to schedule the program.

- 1. Obscene programming is not allowed on ACCESS CARSON CITY'S television channels. Does the program you are submitting contain any obscene material per the definition below?

The United States Supreme Court in 1974 under Miller v. California, 413 U.S. 15, 24 defines obscenity as:

- a. Whether the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest;
- b. Whether the work depicts or describes sexual conduct in a patently offensive way; and
- c. Whether the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value. To be considered obscene, all three criteria must be met. Prurient is defined as marked by, arousing, or appealing to unusual sexual desire. Patently is defined as readily visible or intelligible; obvious.

Please answer: Yes  No

- 2. Programming that is indecent, as defined by the Federal Communications Commission, will be scheduled after 11:00 pm on dates specified by the Executive Director. Does the program you are submitting contain any indecent material per the definition below?

Indecent is defined as descriptions or depictions of sexual or excretory functions that are patently offensive under contemporary standards applicable to Public, Educational, and Governmental Access channels.

Please answer: Yes  No

- 3. Some materials such as adult situations, excessive profane language, nudity, excessive violence, or graphic depictions of surgical procedures may be unsuitable for viewing by children. Does the program you are submitting include any such material?

Please answer: Yes  No

Programming Liability and Indemnification

If you are a resident of Carson City or your place of work is within Carson City, you may submit programs that you produce to be cablecast by ACCESS CARSON CITY. You may also submit import programs. Before signing this contract, please read the following:

I, the undersigned, warrant and represent to ACCESS CARSON CITY that the program presented by me for scheduling as described on this Programming Contract contains none of the following:

Any advertising or material that promotes any product, service, or lottery.

Material which violates any law including but not limited to obscene material, libel, invasion of privacy, violation of trademark or copyright, etc.

Any solicitation or direct appeal for funds.

Advertising which endorses or opposes candidates for public office which is also intended to be presented as a paid political advertisement on other media.

Material that has a reasonable probability of creating an immediate danger of damage to property or injury to persons.

I understand that by signing this contract, I am assuming full responsibility and will be held legally accountable for the content of this programming and as such may be subject to prosecution for program content that violates any local, state, or federal law. I have read and agree to abide by all of ACCESS CARSON CITY'S policies regarding use of The ACCESS CARSON CITY channels and facilities including all technical standards required for program submission. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless The Brewery Arts Center, ACCESS CARSON CITY, the cable provider, and all governments having cable franchise or service agreements with the foregoing, and all their respective staffs and governing boards, from any liability, loss, or damage, including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs, caused by any claim of legal action arising out of the cablecast of the programming submitted by me. I have received appropriate releases for any copyrighted material used in the program. I have the authority to submit this program as the producer or as the authorized agent of the sponsoring non-profit organization. I understand further that by submitting this program for cablecast on ACCESS CARSON CITY, I have waived any right of confidentiality I might have relative to my own identity as Producer of this program and that upon request of any party, subject to the limitations of the Freedom of Information Act, my name and address may be released to the requesting party by ACCESS CARSON CITY.
